Extraordinary Watch Value

Do you want a watch?
Almost everyone does.
Everybody needs one.

Some people however, don't feel like paying a large sum for one. They try to get along by depending on the public clocks and their friends for the time. Inconvenient of course.

I have a number of watches in stock that I wish to dispose of at bottom prices

All the leading makes. They are all first class time keepers, as I test each one myself before putting it out.
They are positively so cheap that there is no further excuse for your going without a watch.

St. Lukes Church.

The annual Parish meeting was held on Wednesday, Apr. 11th,
in the Church, the Rector Canon
Hinchliffe in the chair.

The chairman presented his report dealing with the special work committed to his charge.
The report showed very satisfactory progress and a steady increase in the number of church
members and communicants.

There were at Easter 84 communicants on the roll, an increase of 16 over last year.

Mr. J. L. Crawford, warden presented his report which showed that after all expenses for the year (except building) had been paid, he had over $80.00 left in hand.

THESE REPORTS WERE ADOPTED.
Mr. Taylor, the organist, who has also built the new pulpit was complimented on his work and heartily gratitude was expressed for his services.

The meeting voted a sum of $30.00 to him, as a slight expression of the esteem in which the parishioners hold him. A vote of thanks was passed to Mr. A. W. G. Allen for auditing the accounts.
The matter of church building was thoroughly discussed and two matters were formally left with the vestry.

The following named officers were elected.

Wardens—Messrs. Best and Crawford.

Vestrymen—Messrs. Drake, Postill, Reed, Ray, Casals, Hell-
well, Hart, Molson, Love, Piggion, and Armstrong.

Delegates to Synod—Messrs.
Postill, Drake, Love, and Reed.

Auditors—Messrs. Lawley and Allen.

PATRIOTS OF THE PROVINCES.

The recent election of Dr. McIntyre for Strathcona to the house of Commons at Ottawa on so-called Liberal principles awakens anew the great question: What are these principles?

A short time ago the organs of the party in power heralded the slogan that "to the victor belong the spoils." In the old Greek and Roman days there was perhaps a touch of heroism in this slogan, but in the present age it seems to form part, if not the whole of the so-called Liberal principle that it is office and emoluments that Liberal candidates after. Patriotism goes to the winds in the face of an office.

From 1890 to 1904 of the then North West Territories steadily and consistently asked for provincial autonomy, with all the rights, powers and privileges accorded to the other provinces of the Dominion. The old North West assembly, under the leadership of Mr. Haultain, unanimously passed resolutions in favor of full provincial rights, and submitted to Ottawa a draft bill embodying those rights.

The general elections for the Dominion were held in November 1904, and one great battle cry in the Territories was "full provincial rights," to which every candidate gave his pledge. Ten men representing themselves as true and good patriots were elected. Of these, seven were Liberals and three Conservatives. The latter, Messrs. Lake, Herron and McCarthy are at their posts in Ottawa, fighting for the rights of the west, and protest against the mutilated autonomy bills.

As to the seven Liberals, they all violated their pledges and supported the autonomy bills, and FIVE OUT OF THE SEVEN HAVE ACCEPTED SOFT JOBS FROM SIR WILFRID LAURIER. Frank Oliver took the portfolio of minister of the interior, with all its fat emoluments. Messrs. Davis, Douglas and Peter Talbot fled from the arena of public opinion and took safe seats for life in the senate, while W. W. Scott stepped into the Premiership of Saskatchewan, with all the iniquity leading up to that appointment.

These are bright and shining examples of liberalism. The people await with anxiety, though with certainty, the result of the patriotism of the other two, Messrs. Turfitt and Adamson, as well as Dr. McIntyre, who has just succeeded Peter Talbot.—Herald.

A CLEVER SWINDLER.

Rev. J. A. Day, the much talked of fakir, has been heard from since the Columbian. A letter written by him at Tiflis, a city in Trans-Caucasia near the Black Sea, has reached David the young Oriental student at Columbian college, and makes known that the "reverend" gentleman is on his way home to Persia. The letter was written about a month ago, consequently the smooth swindler must have long since arrived in his native hills. Day states in the letter that he will return to this country next August or September, and the writer proceeds to apologize for his long silence.

The local authorities are doing everything possible to prosecute the fakir, and Chief McIntosh is preparing to lay the matter before the deputy attorney general, whose aid in bringing the offender to justice will be solicited.

Steps are also being taken to secure the assistance of the Persian government, and if an extradition can be arranged it is altogether likely that Day will be brought back for trial. Canadian and American missionaries in Persia have been communicated with and made aware of Day's operations here. No credence is placed in Day's statement in the letter that he will return in August. The matter will also be laid before the Dominion government and the United States authorities, according to present plans as the swindle was something of an international affair.

Day said nothing in the letter of the whereabouts of his brother Mirzah, who is wanted in Persia for murdering a countryman.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The council deserves credit for the resolution adopted at the last meeting in regard to giving a bonus for tree planting. This is a step in the right direction; to award giving Red Deer a charming characteristic and distinguishing feature. If ever Red Deer becomes, as has been intended by many enterprising citizens prominent in civic affairs and whose efforts have constantly tended toward a realization of their hopes, a city of homes, it will be through these and similar efforts on the part of the Council. But the Council can do little without the co-operation of all citizens; and therefore, this bonus is given more for the purpose of securing the assistance and co-operation of the people than for any other reason. The bonus is 50 cents a tree, not a large amount but sufficient to encourage any who may be disposed to plant trees in the sure and certain knowledge that whatever beautifies his street front will proportionately enhance the value of his property. We hope the citizens will take the matter up and make this year memorable as the tree planting year.

We cannot sufficiently thank our friends of Infaill and the Editors of the newspapers there for the kindly disposition they have shown to assist Red Deer in securing the capital. This is only another illustration of the fact that the two towns have always lived together on the best of terms. Whatever be the outcome of the capital question we very much appreciate the hearty goodwill of our friends to the south.

The time is soon coming when we will be using nothing but Alberta sugar, Alberta flour, Alberta clothing, Alberta boots and shoes, Alberta machinery, Alberta paper, and Alberta hardware. Man's mechanical skill wedded by capital to our great natural advantages will produce this result. May the banks of the Red Deer throb with busy factories.

Every citizen can aid in the publicity campaign by saying something good about Red Deer to every person he meets in every place he visits.

The Capital question comes up in the Legislature today and will precipitate a severe struggle in the house. Red Deer is putting up a noble fight and should win on her merits, but there are signs of sinister and unfair influences being at work which makes the result dubious.

The Sabbath School Convention will be a great success, and very suggestive and helpful.

Many Eastern people complain of the lack, in the West, of people who read. Culture comes with leisure, which is unknown in this busy land. Thoughtful leisure has been the chief agency in adding genius to build the great literary edifices of the past. This West has a rich heritage of facts that ought in time to produce a fine literature. We have the mountains and the rivers to inspire great poets and orators.

Address and Presentation.

On Tuesday evening last the members of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church met at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Smith for the purpose of joining in an address and presentation to Mrs. Bradshaw, who leaves this week for Strathcona. The following is the address which was read by Mrs. G. W. Smith after which Mrs. G. A. Love presented Mrs. Bradshaw on behalf of aid with a handsome piece of silverware.

Red Deer, Alta.
Apr. 17th, 06.
Dear Mrs. Bradshaw:—
It is with mingled feelings of pleasure and regret that we are gathered here this evening to ask your acceptance of a little memento of your stay among us. We regret very much that circumstances cause you your husband and family to leave Red Deer and make your home elsewhere. We feel that you will be greatly missed by your many friends here, and by none more than by your fellow members of the Methodist Aid.
